Windſor, March 30.

The following Addreſſes of the Archbiſhop, Biſhops and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation aſſembled, have been preſented to Their Majeſties by His Grace the Lord Archbiſhop, attended by the Right Reverend the Lords Biſhops of London, Glouceſter, Lincoln and Carliſle, the Reverend the Dean of Norwich, the Archdeacon of Canterbury, and Sir Richard Cope, Bart. Prebendary of Weſtminſter, being introduced to the King by the Honourable Major General Harcourt, one of the Grooms of His Majeſty's Bedchamber, and to the Queen by the Honourable Stephen Digby, Vice-Chamberlain to Her Majeſty.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbiſhop, Biſhops and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations on the ſignal Interpoſition of Providence in your Majeſty's happy Recovery, and to expreſs the Pleaſure we feel in ſeeing your Majeſty reſtored to the Comforts of your domeſtic Life, and to the Duties of your Royal Station. We rejoice, in common with the Reſt of your loyal Subjects, that the Security and Advantages which we enjoy under your Majeſty's juſt and mild Government are continued to us. Attached to the Conſtitution of our Country, we are truly ſenſible of our Happineſs in living under a King, whoſe whole Reign has proved Him the Guardian of the Civil and Religious Rights of His Subjects. But more eſpecially, as Miniſters of our Holy Religion, we are anxious to declare our heartfelt Joy, that we are ſtill bleſſed with a Sovereign, by whoſe paternal Care it is conſtantly protected, and whoſe exemplary Piety and Purity of Manners adorn its Doctrines, and extend its Influence.

We offer up our moſt earneſt Prayers to the Throne of Grace, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and happy over a People who manifeſt their greateful Senſe of your Majeſty's Goodneſs by their zealous Attachment to your Perſon, and their firm Support of the Rights and Dignities of your Crown. May you continue, Sir, to poſſeſs that nobleſt Empire, the Hearts of your Subjects: May their Affection be proportionate to your Majeſty's Goodneſs; and may the Conſciouſneſs of poſſeſſing it alleviate your Royal Cares. May the pleaſing Intercourſe of gracious Protection and loyal Duty ſtill increaſe between a beloved Sovereign and a grateful People, till it ſhall pleaſe Almighty God to crown your Majeſty's Labours and Virtues in this World with Life eternal in the World to come.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer:

My Lords, and the Reſt of the Clergy,

I Thank you for this loyal and affectionate Addreſs; containing your Congratulations on the ſignal Interpoſition of Providence in My Recovery from a dangerous Illneſs.

The Expreſſions of Attachment and Fidelity, which I receive from My loving Subjects, are moſt grateful to Me; My Wiſhes will ever be to promote, to the utmoſt of My Power, the Welfare and Happineſs of My People.

You may depend upon My watchful Care and Protection of the Eſtabliſhed Church, and of My beſt Support of Our moſt Holy Religion.

They were all very graciouſly received, and had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

MAY it pleaſe your Majeſty to permit the Archbiſhop, Biſhops and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation aſſembled, to expreſs the unfeigned Joy which they feel, and the dutiful Part they take in that which your Majeſty receives from the Accompliſhment of the Prayers of an affectionate and loyal Nation on the Reſtoration of His Majeſty's Health. Deeply ſenſible of the Protection and Bleſſings which we derive from His Majeſty's Government, it is with moſt thankful Hearts that we ſee it preſerved to us, and our Joy is greatly increaſed by the Reflection that this merciful Diſpenſation of Providence reſtores the Happineſs of a Queen, whoſe unaffected Piety and Chriſtian Virtues have juſtly acquired our Reſpect and Veneration. The long Experience which we have had of your Majeſty's Attachment to our moſt Gracious Sovereign, the conſtant Proofs of tender and unremitted Attention during the late Calamity, and your Majeſty's religious Inſtructions and Example invariably directed to impreſs the Principles and Duties of Chriſtianity on the Minds of your Royal Family, demand the moſt grateful Acknowledgments, more eſpecially from thoſe, who attached, both by Inclination and Duty, to the Support of our Holy Religion, have Reaſon to hope that the Influence of Royal Example may, with the Bleſſing of God, contribute to reſtore it to a greater Degree of Public Eſtimation.

We humbly intreat your Majeſty to accept the juſt Returns of our Gratitude. We truſt that we can-t not make them in a more becoming and acceptable Manner, than by offering up our devout Supplications to Almighty God, that He will be pleased to preserve to our Gracious Sovereign the Health which in His Mercy He hath restored; that your Majesty's Life may be long continued to share and to increase His Happiness, and in the Enjoyment of every temporal and spiritual Blessing; that your Majesty's Descendants may to all Generations sit on the Throne and inherit the Virtues of their Royal Parents.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Return you sincere Thanks for Expressions so full of Duty to the King, and Attention to Me.

The universal Joy that prevails among all Ranks of Men is the more pleasing to Me, as it so strongly denotes the Consciousness of the Blessings they enjoy under His Majesty's mild and judicious Government.

They were all very graciously received, and had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

The following Addresses of the Bishop of London, the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster, have been presented to Their Majesties by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of London, attended by the Reverend the Dean of St. Paul's, Mr. Eaton, Archdeacon of Middlesex, Doctor Hamilton, Archdeacon of Colchester, Doctor Jeffries, Canon Residentiary of St. Paul's, and Doctor Bell, Prebendary of Westminster, being introduced to the King by the Honourable Major-General Harcourt, one of the Grooms of His Majesty's Bedchamber, and to the Queen by the Honourable Stephen Digby, Vice-Chamberlain to Her Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of London, the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster, beg Leave to express to your Majesty the large Share we take in the general Voice of Joy and Congratulations through the Kingdom, on the late happy Event of your Majesty's Recovery from a severe and alarming Indisposition.

The first Intelligence of your Majesty's Illness struck your faithful People with Consternation and Dismay, and the Continuance of it overwhelmed them with the deepest Affliction: Yet amidst this general Gloom and Despondency, there were those who constantly cherished a reviving Hope, that, in a Case of such infinite Magnitude and Importance, the sincere, the fervent and united Prayers of a whole Kingdom would finally prevail. Their Expectations have not been disappointed; the Almighty heard our Petitions; and our Sovereign was restored.

This signal Interposition of Providence in your Majesty's Favour was too visible, too strongly marked by all the various Circumstances attending it, to be mistaken or denied. We acknowledge it with the deepest Humility, we feel its blessed Influence on our best and dearest Interests, and we trust it will never be erased from our Memories and our Hearts.

In your Majesty's Breast it has excited the warmest Sentiments of Devotion and Gratitude to Heaven: And there are two Circumstances attending it, which must give your Majesty singular Satisfaction. The one is, that it affords a most convincing Proof that just and righteous Princes are the peculiar Objects of the Divine Favour and Protection; the other is, that it has drawn from your People such cordial and unequivocal Marks of Attachment and Affection to your Person, as few Sovereigns, in any Age or Nation, have ever received from their Subjects.

These, Sir, are the genuine Effusions of our Hearts, impressed with a lively Sense of the many invaluable Blessings we have long experienced under your Majesty's mild and equal Government, and (what more particularly concerns ourselves) most truly thankful for the Countenance and Encouragement which Piety and good Morals receive both from your Authority and your Example.

It will, Sir, be our constant Prayer to Heaven, that the same good Providence, which has hitherto so remarkably watched over your Royal Person, may still continue to protect your Majesty, and preserve to us, for many Years, the Guardian of our Constitution, and the Support and Ornament of our most Holy Religion.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most Gracious Answer:

I Thank you for this loyal and dutiful Address. The Proofs which My faithful Subjects have given of their affectionate Attachment to My Person, and of the Satisfaction they receive at the signal Interposition of Divine Providence in raising Me from the severe Indisposition with which I have lately been afflicted, cannot fail to make a lasting Impression upon My Mind.

You may depend upon My constant Care and Protection of the Established Church, and of My anxious Concern for the Maintenance of true Religion and good Morals among My People.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Bishop of London, the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster, beg Permission to approach your Majesty, with the most fervent Expressions of Thankfulness to God for the late providential Re-establishment of His Majesty's Health.

We were no Strangers, Madam, to your gentle Virtues, and condescending Goodness, which had for so many Years endeared your Majesty to all Ranks of People in this Country. But we had still to learn what consummate Prudence in the most difficult and distressing Circumstances; what Patience, Firmness, Fortitude and Resignation, under the severest Trials that human Nature could experience, your Majesty was capable of exerting, when the Occasion called for them.

In these great but painful Exertions we saw the full Force and Power of genuine Piety and religious Principle. We saw in your Majesty's Conduct, during the Whole of this afflicting Scene, what solid Consolation and Support under Calamity they are able to afford; what true Magnanimity they can produce even in the tenderest and most delicate Minds. But, Thanks be to God, this bitter Conflict is at an End. Nothing now remains for your Majesty but the easier and more delightful Part of reaping the full Reward of your past Sufferings in the restored Health and Happiness of our beloved Sovereign, and in the unbounded Joy it has diffused through every Part of His Dominions.

These are Blessings in your Majesty's Estimation, the greatest this World has to give. May it be long, very long, before you are called to a still higher Recompence in Heaven.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Cannot but receive your Expressions of Joy on the King's Recovery from His late severe Indisposition with great Satisfaction, as well as those that convey your Attention to Me. It must ever be My Aim to deserve the Approbation of this Nation, and more particularly of your Sacred Profession.

They were all very graciously received, and had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

The following Addreſſes of the Preſident, Council and Fellows of the Society of Antiquaries of London, have been preſented to Their Majeſties by the Earl of Leiceſter, Preſident of that Society: Which Addreſſes Their Majeſties were pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Preſident, Council and Fellows of the Society of Antiquaries of London.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Preſident, Council and Fellows of the Society of Antiquaries of London, humbly preſume to expreſs the warm Effuſions of our Hearts on the happy Event of your Majeſty's Recovery.

Not ſatisfied with the Opportunities which we have embraced of ſubſcribing our Names ſeparately to the affectionate Addreſſes laid at the Foot of the Throne, on this joyful Occaſion, by different Deſcriptions of your Majeſty's Subjects, with whom we are reſpectively connected as private Individuals, we feel ourſelves impelled by peculiar Obligations to unite in offering our ſincere Congratulations as Members of this Public Body, which has been diſtinguiſhed by Royal Patronage with the Honor of a Charter of Incorporation, and which never can meet to hold its ſtated Aſſemblies, without being reminded, that it is indebted to your Majeſty's munificent Patronage for its permanent Eſtabliſhment within theſe Walls.

We truſt, that the Objects of our Inſtitution have been diligently and profitably purſued; and, by perſevering in our active Exertions to throw Light on ancient Hiſtory and Manners, in various Particulars, about which our General Hiſtorians are ſilent, becauſe they had not the Means of Information, we look up with Confidence for a Continuation of the favourable Regard of a Monarch, who, during His auſpicious Reign, hath extended Protection to every Branch of Literature.

Thankful to Providence for the great National Bleſſing we have ſo lately received, it is our ardent Wiſh, that your Majeſty may be long preſerved, endeared to all your Subjects by your unwearied and ſucceſsful Endeavours to make them happy.

Given under our Seal, at Somerſet Place, March 26, 1789.

To Her Majeſty the QUEEN,

The humble Addreſs of the Preſident, Council and Fellows of the Society of Antiquaries of London.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

THE Preſident, Council and Fellows of the Society of Antiquaries of London, having paid their glad Tribute of Congratulation to their moſt Gracious Sovereign, on the happy Re-eſtabliſhment of His Health, would have thought themſelves very deficient in their Duty if they had not preſumed, at the ſame Time, to convey to your Majeſty the humble and dutiful Expreſſions of their loyal Zeal on an Event, which however intereſting to the whole Body of a People ſenſible of the Happineſs they have enjoyed under His mild and paternal Government, muſt have excited a particular Glow of the moſt exalted Satisfaction in the Breaſt of your Majeſty, to whom He is united and endeared by the tendereſt Ties of conjugal Affection.

Given under our Seal, at Somerſet Place, March 26, 1789.

Whitehall, April 4.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Archbiſhop, the Dean and Chapter, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Canterbury.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbiſhop, the Dean and Chapter, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Canterbury, beg Leave to preſent our humble Congratulations to your Majeſty on your providential Recovery from your late Illneſs.

They are a Tribute juſtly due from loyal and grateful Subjects to a King, under whoſe mild and gracious Government they enjoy the Bleſſings of Religion, Liberty, Proſperity and Peace; and more particularly from the Miniſters of that Holy Religion, which your Majeſty defends by your Authority, and ſupports by your Example. We preſume to offer them too, Sir, as Proofs of our Veneration for thoſe reſpectable and amiable Virtues, which conſtitute your Majeſty's perſonal Character.

Impreſſed with theſe Sentiments, we ſhall not ceaſe to pray unto God to preſerve your Majeſty, through a long and happy Reign, the Health which He hath reſtored, and every domeſtick as well as publick Happineſs. It ſhall be our Part to ſhew our Gratitude for the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Government, by inſtructing your People committed to our Care in the Duties of Chriſtianity, and by confirming them in a zealous Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Royal Family, conſtitutional Obedience to your Authority, and Imitation of your Example.

[Delivered by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Bangor.

MAY it pleaſe your Majeſty to accept the ſincere Congratulations of your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Bangor, on the happy Event of your Majeſty's Recovery from your late Indiſpoſition.

We humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that the Account of your Illneſs deeply affected all Ranks of People in this remote Part of your Kingdom; but none were more truly ſenſible of the great national Calamity than thoſe of our Order, who would not ſuffer their Anxiety to abate, till they had heard of your Majeſty being, by the Bleſſing of Providence, reſtored to the Prayers and Wiſhes of your faithful Subjects.

We enjoy, in common with the reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects, the invaluable Bleſſings of your mild and equal Government; and beſides theſe, we have the rare Felicity alſo of finding the ſacred Cauſe, in which we are engaged, ſupported and encouraged by the bright Example which your Majeſty has uniformly ſet of every Chriſtian Grace and Virtue.

The Cares of Government are ſo many, and ſo weighty, that they who adminiſter it ſtand in Need of every Comfort and Support; and we humbly hope, that the affectionate Regard and

Concern

Concern which all your Subjects expreſſed during your Majeſty's ſevere Indiſpoſition, and the unfeigned Joy and Satisfaction which every where appeared on your happy Recovery, will afford your Majeſty Matter of true Conſolation, as this is the beſt Return, however inadequate, which a loyal People can make to your Majeſty for your unwearied Pains through a long Courſe of Years, in every Period of which your have proved yourſelf to be the Father of your People.

We ſhould be greatly wanting in Duty and Reſpect, if we omitted this Opportunity of mentioning how much we reverence your Royal Conſort, who, on this trying Occaſion, gave ſo many Proofs of Her Affection, Goodneſs and Prudence, as cannot fail to endear our Gracious Queen to all your Majeſty's Subjects, and tranſmit Her Name, in Characters of Honour, to the lateſt Poſterity.

We will detain your Majeſty but one Moment longer, whilſt we pour forth our moſt ardent Prayers and Wiſhes that your Majeſty may long continue to reign in Health and Proſperity over a grateful People, and that they may learn from your pious Example, that a firm Reliance on an over-ruling Providence is the only ſolid Comfort in this Life, even to the greateſt and moſt powerful among Men!

Bangor, March 21, 1789.

[Delivered by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, humbly crave Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with our moſt ſincere Congratulations upon your Majeſty's happy Recovery!

We beg Leave likewiſe to expreſs our moſt ardent Wiſhes for the Continuance of your Majeſty's Health, and that your Majeſty may long, very long, reign over a dutiful and affectionate People with every publick and domeſtick Felicity.

[Delivered by the Chairman and Deputy Chairman.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Treaſurer, Maſters of the Bench and Barriſters of the ancient Society of the Inner Temple, eſtabliſhed for promoting the Study and Practice of the Law, humbly intreat your Majeſty's Permiſſion, amidſt the univerſal Joy that now prevails on your Majeſty's happy Recovery, and excites the warmeſt Effuſions of Gratitude to Divine Providence in the Breaſt of every good Citizen, to offer our Tribute of Congratulations.

The invariable Regard which the whole Tenor of your Majeſty's Government, even from the Commencement of your auſpicious Reign, hath manifeſted to the Conſtitution and Laws of this Country; the additional Strength and Firmneſs which under your Majeſty's Authority hath been given to many old Laws; the many new ones which under the ſame Authority have paſſed, by all which the Rights of your Subjects have been more and more confirmed and eſtabliſhed; your Majeſty's mild and merciful Exerciſe of the Executive Power and Prerogative: Theſe moſt invaluable Bleſſings muſt excite the Admiration of, and call aloud for, the warmeſt Acknowledgments from every Profeſſor of the Municipal Law of this Kingdom.

Deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of theſe Advantages, and every happy Conſequence attending the Re-eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty in the Government of theſe Kingdoms, it is our moſt ardent Wiſh and Prayer, that the ſame good Providence, whoſe benign Influence hath thus graciouſly interpoſed in this Inſtance, which excites our preſent Congratulations, may long, very long, preſerve you in the Enjoyment of your well deſerved Titles, the King and Father of a free, loyal and affectionate People.

Inner Temple, March 28, 1789.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Glouceſter, feeling ourſelves more particularly intereſted in your Majeſty's Health, by your late Royal and Gracious Reſidence in this County, beg Leave to approach your Preſence with Hearts filled with the moſt unfeigned Thankfulneſs to Providence, for the happy Re-eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Health, and being again reſtored to the ardent Wiſhes and Prayers of your faithful and affectionate People, and to the perſonal Exerciſe of your Royal Authority.

We moſt humbly take this Opportunity of aſſuring your Majeſty of our firm and zealous Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government; and we ſincerely hope, that it may pleaſe the Almighty to extend His Bleſſing to this Nation, by proſonging your Majeſty's moſt gracious and benign Reign, by which the Religious and Civil Liberties, the Trade and Proſperity of this Kingdom, have hitherto been ſo effectually protected and ſecured.

[Tranſmitted by the Earl of Berkeley, Lord Lieutenant, and the Honourable George Berkeley, and Thomas Maſters, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for that County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Gentlemen, Clergy and other the Inhabitants of the City of Exeter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Gentlemen, Clergy and other the Inhabitants of the City of Exeter, aſſembled in the Guildhall of the ſaid City, with all Humility beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Reſtoration of your Health, and your Return to the Exerciſe of your Regal Authority.

It is in the Nature of Man to become more ſenſible of the greateſt Bleſſings of Providence when they are threatened to be withdrawn. We need not therefore to diſſemble, that deeply impreſſed, as we have ever been, with a grateful Senſe of the Benefits which we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, the Danger, which we lately apprehended, of being deprived of your Paternal Care, hath given new Force to the Impreſſion, and united, with the Loyalty of Subjects, the tender Affections of Children. The ſame Sentiments, we are perſuaded, pervade the Breaſts of all good Men amongſt us; and while they animate our Prayers for the Continuance of your Majeſty's moſt valuable Life, the Demonſtrations of dutiful Attachment to your Perſon and Government, called forth by the happy Occaſion of your Recovery, will, we truſt, remain a Pledge to your Majeſty, and to your Royal Poſterity, that the ſame public and private Virtues, which adorn your Majeſty's Character, will ever engage the Love and Veneration of a free and enlightened People.

It is, we hope, without departing from that Modeſty of Obedience which belongs to us as Citizens and Subjects, that we preſume to lay before your Majeſty our humble Teſtimony to the Wiſdom of your two Houſes of Parliament; who, in providing for the Exigencies of the State during your Majeſty's late Indiſpoſition, manifeſted that equal Regard to the Perſon of the Sovereign, the

Honour

Honour of the Crown, and the Rights of the People, which in all Emergencies muſt procure the higheſt national Reſpect to the Reſolutions of a Britiſh Parliament, while it aſcertains their Object to be the Perpetuity of our glorious Conſtitution.

[Tranſmitted by J. Burnett, Eſq; Mayor.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of your Majeſty's ancient and loyal City of Cheſter, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with our moſt dutiful and affectionate Congratulations on your Recovery from your late Indiſpoſition. We yield our unfeigned Thanks to the King of Kings for this happy Event, by which we are encouraged to hope that your faithful Subjects may long enjoy the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's mild and juſt Government.

And we feel the greateſt Satisfaction in reflecting that the firm yet temperate Meaſures, which were adopted and purſued by the Great Council of the Nation, under an Exigency altogether unexampled in the Annals of theſe Realms, have preſerved the preſent Honor and Dignity of your Majeſty's Crown, whilſt the Rights of Parliament have been at the ſame Time protected and ſecured to all future Ages.

Given under our Common Seal, the 26th Day of March, 1789.

Tho. Cotgreane, Dep. Mayor.

[Delivered by Thomas Groſvenor and Richard Wilbraham Bootle. Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for that City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Citizens, Gentlemen, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the City and County and Cloſe of the Cathedral Church of Lichfield, aſſembled in the Guildhall of the ſaid City.

MAY it pleaſe your Majeſty to permit us to approach your Royal Perſon with the warmeſt Aſſurances, that as none of your Majeſty's Subjects could feel greater Sorrow than your Majeſty's affectionate and loyal Subjects of this City for your late Illneſs, ſo it is impoſſible to find Terms ſufficiently expreſſive of our Happineſs on the joyful Event of your Majeſty's Reſtoration to Health, to your Royal Family, and to your once more happy People.

A Bleſſing ſo truly great, granted by Providence to the ſincere Prayers of a diſtreſſed Land, hath made on our Minds Impreſſions of Gratitude never to be effaced.

We beg Leave to add, that it will be our conſtant Prayer to the Supreme Being, that your Majeſty, and our more than ever honoured Queen, may long live in Health and Proſperity, Examples of every Virtue and Excellence which can adorn a Throne, or do Honour to human Nature.

Given under our Hands, and the Common Seal of the ſaid City, the 26th Day of March, 1789.

Senſible of the Happineſs which we have enjoyed under your mild and legal Government, we bleſs Almighty God, who, in Mercy to your People, and in Anſwer to their fervent and united Prayers, hath ſo fully reſtored you to Health, that you can again in Perſon exerciſe your Royal Functions, and reſume that Attention to the Welfare and Proſperity of your Subjects, which they have long experienced, and moſt gratefully acknowledge.

That perfect Satisfaction, which, at preſent, we feel, will animate us to labour with increaſed Aſſiduity in diſcharging the Duties of our Stations; being well perſuaded, that by inſtilling into the Minds of the Youth under our Care ſuch Principles as may render them worthy Men and good Citizens, we ſhall moſt effectually recommend ourſelves to our Gracious Sovereign, who, as the Father of His People, has nothing ſo near His Heart as their Improvement in uſeful Knowledge and true Virtue.
